

What Single Policy Initiative Makes the MOST JOBS Available?

78% -- The percentage of likely voters who support a mandatory employment verification system as a way to end illegal immigration. Pulse Opinion Research asked 1,000 adult likely voters on February 16, 2012. (<https://www.numbersusa.com/content/nusablog/beckr/february-28-2012/romney-s-vocal-e-verify-stance-assisted-strong-arizona-win-tonight-n>)

82% -- The percentage of likely voters who think businesses should be required to use E-Verify. Rasmussen Reports asked adult likely voters in May, 2011.

(http://www.rasmussenreports.com/public_content/politics/current_events/immigration/61_favor_a_state_law_that_would_shut_down_repeat_offenders_who_hire_illegal_immigrants)

* House Judiciary Committee testimony estimate on the number of illegal immigrants in the workforce that would be pushed out by H.R. 2885 (7,000,000).

+ GOP.gov, which was quoting a Joseph Mason study on the effects of regulations (36,137 jobs; 80,000 jobs; and 1,400,000 jobs).

~ Republicans & Democrats are both on record agreeing to an estimated figure attributed to the Obama Administration (250,000 jobs).

^ David Wyss of Brown University (600,000 jobs) estimate and Mark Zandi of Moody's Analytics (1,900,000 jobs) estimate.

Congressional Budget Office estimate as of August 2011 report (1,000,000 to 2,900,000 jobs).